

HAWTHORNE'S GREAT STORY.

EXTRA.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS.

Immense Throng to Attend the Conventions Oct. 3, 4 and 5.

Famous Orators and Mammoth Illuminated Processions.

Meetings to Be Held in Industrial Union Hall in This City.

Everything is in readiness for the reception of the delegates to the Second Quadrennial Convention of the National Association of Democratic Clubs in this city Oct. 4 and 5, which, it is expected, will be the largest political convention ever held in the United States.

AMERICAN INDUSTRIAL UNION HALL. Depew Avenue and Forty-third and Forty-fourth Streets. The Convention will be a big campaign event. It will practically be the opening of the Fall campaign in this city. Candidate Cleveland, it is announced, will be here to address the Convention, and there will be two big parades, illuminations, fireworks and fire oratory to add to the attractiveness of the occasion. It is officially stated that 10,000 delegates from all over the country will be in attendance. Some of the best Democratic speakers in the land will be among them, and the Committee of Arrangements have hit on a practical and effective scheme to utilize this oratorical talent. Their plan is to have an illuminated pageant on the night of Oct. 4, and on the following night hold meetings in every Assembly District, to be addressed by two or more of the visiting speakers. In this way the campaign will be opened on a wholesale scale.

CHARTERED P. BLACK, JR. It will be a monster Cleveland and Stevenson demonstration. Arrangements have been made with the railroad companies for reduced rates, and thousands will probably take advantage of the cheap fares to pay a visit to the city. The estimated number of visitors is 100,000. There will also be many uniformed visiting clubs acting as escorts to delegates from neighboring cities. Brooklyn, Long Island City, Hoboken, Jersey City and Philadelphia have promised to send large contingents. There will be 5,000 alone from Pennsylvania. All the arrangements for the big gathering are in charge of a General Committee, composed of members of local clubs belonging to the National Association. For holding the Convention the Committee has secured American Industrial Union Hall, a new building, covering the square bounded by Lexington and Depew avenues and Forty-third and Forty-fourth streets, which is said to have a seating capacity of 14,000. It has been no small task for the General Committee to complete preparations for a gathering like the coming Convention. The general plan has been carried out by sub-committees, all like Messrs. Washington, Canada and Gowlin, being old and experienced campaigners, as the result of their work shows. The headquarters of the General Committee is in Parlor B of the Hoffman House. In the same hotel are also the headquarters of the National League of Democratic Clubs, which holds its convention at Chickadee Hall Oct. 3. All the delegates to the State League Convention, 1,500 to 1,800, will also be delegates to the Convention of the National Association.

CHANGES IN THE L. O. O. F. Army Headquarters and Military Officers to Be Abolished. BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 23.—When the present term of office of Lieut. Gen. Underwood expires next year, the "army headquarters" of the L. O. O. F., with all military officers of that name, will be abolished, and each Patriarch's district will be placed under the control of the State Encampment within whose jurisdiction it is located. The new system has been accomplished by its mission and has become too expensive a luxury, according to the Patriarch, the owner, and in some quarters awakening opposition to a system of government no longer necessary.

Board Thacher, of Albany, is President, and Edward C. Stanton, of Brooklyn, Secretary of the State League. The programme arranged by the General Committee is as follows: Oct. 3.—Procession of local clubs, largely composed of the German-American Cleveland Union, to receive the delegates. Review by Gov. Flower, Mayor Grant and Mayor Boddy, of Brooklyn.

ASSEMBLYMAN RULIER. Oct. 4.—Organization of Convention. In the evening parade of delegates, local and visiting clubs. This parade will be a monster turnout. According to reports received by the general committee, it is expected that from 75,000 to 100,000 marchers will be in line.

The line will be formed at Fifty-fifth street and Fifth avenue, and the line of march is down Fifth avenue to Washington Arch. The parade will be reviewed by prominent democrats from the reviewing stands erected for the Columbian celebration at Forty-second street and Fifth avenue and Madison square, and by the Democratic National Committee from their headquarters at 130 Fifth avenue.

Electric searchlights will be used to illuminate the parade. This will be done with the following torchlights: Oct. 5.—Convention continued. In the evening meetings by local organizations to be addressed by delegates. There are the sub-committees of the General Committee: Ways and Means—Charles J. Canda, ex-convict; Franklin Edson, Chairman; Ferdinand J. Parrot, ex-convict; Nicholas Muller, Jr.; David Ottendorfer; Fred H. Lee; Thomas F. Hayes; Kenneth, Thomas A. Reed. Apportionment—William L. Brown, William L. Brown, Jr.; George S. Gant; James Traynor; William H. Burke; James E. Rogers; H. W. Grabner; Alexander Meakin; Nathan Levy; Charles J. Canda; Nicholas Muller, Jr.; David Ottendorfer; Fred H. Lee; Thomas F. Hayes; Kenneth, Thomas A. Reed. Speakers—Frederic W. Hillebrand, Chairman; Nicholas Muller, Jr.; William Sulzer; Charles J. Canda; Nicholas Muller, Jr.; David Ottendorfer; Fred H. Lee; Thomas F. Hayes; Kenneth, Thomas A. Reed. Traffic and Local Transportation—M. W. Carr, Fredrick J. Gardner, George D. Sanford, Isaac Dannenberg, Louis P. Hanover, James A. McKenna, Frank C. Fox, Jr., Joseph J. Miller, Jr., G. E. Wahl, Fred H. Lee, J. C. Bell, George D. Sanford, Charles E. Simms, Jr. Invitations, Badges and Tickets—Alexander Meakin, John Baker, Frank H. Murtha, Thomas F. Hayes, Arthur J. Westermeyer, T. H. Reed. New York gave birth to the National Association of Democratic Clubs. It was formed through the efforts of the Young Men's Democratic Club of this city, and organized on July 4, 1888. Its object is to foster the democratic spirit throughout the country, and insure active co-operation in disseminating Jeffersonian principles of government. The purpose of the coming convention is to ratify the nominations made and the platform adopted by the National Democratic Convention at Chicago in June last, to discuss plans of campaign, receive reports and elect new officers. These are the officers whose terms expire: President, Chauncey P. Black, York, Pa. Secretary, Lawrence Gardner, Washington, D. C. Treasurer, Gov. Howell P. Flower, of New York. Executive Committee—William L. Wilson, West Virginia; Chairman; Lawrence Gardner, District of Columbia; Secretary; Robert Grier Monroe, New York; Alexander T. Ankeny, Minnesota; Charles May, E. Black, Pennsylvania; Harvey N. Odison, Massachusetts; Howell P. Flower, New York; George S. Gant, New Jersey; Charles Ogden, Nebraska; Harry Wells Black, Maryland; Bradley G. Selig, Wisconsin; Edward A. Whitney, New York. Ex-Lieut. Gov. Black, of Pennsylvania, under whose administration the Association has attained such a wonderful growth, will preside over the Convention. Both Mr. Black and Gov. Flower will probably be re-elected unless they decline another term, it is said.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

A Most Attractive Card at the Gravesend Track To-Day.

Evenly Matched Racers Promise Some Exciting Contests.

The card at Gravesend to-day is one of the most attractive of the meeting. The entries do not include many high-class horses, but in each event the probable starters seem evenly matched and the races promise exciting contests. The usual military stake event is omitted. Gold Dollar, Adelbert, Walcott and Chesapeake are to make the opening event worth looking at. Nera, Homer, Mary Stone, King Crab and other good ones start in the mile dash. A good field of two-year-olds are included in the fifth. The sport promises to be more than interesting to the spectators. The track will be in fair condition. The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race.—A sweepstakes of $10 each, with $1,000 added, six furlongs. 122. J. J. McLaughlin's Walcott. 123. J. J. McLaughlin's Nera. 124. J. J. McLaughlin's Homer. 125. J. J.
